

THE NATIONAL DAY TO PREVENT TEEN PREGNANCY

NATIONAL DAY PARTNERSHIPS

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL DAY?

The eighth annual National Day to Prevent Teen Pregnancy will take place on May 6, 2009. The purpose of the National Day is to focus the attention of teens on the importance of avoiding teen pregnancy and other serious consequences of sex. On the National Day, teens nationwide are asked to take short, online quiz that asks them to reflect on the best course of action in a number of tough sexual situations.

The message of the National Day is straightforward: Sex has consequences. The online quiz (available in English and Spanish) delivers this message directly to teens and challenges them to think carefully about what they might do "in the moment."

Organized by the National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy, the National Day has widespread support from more than 200 national organizations and media outlets who serve as official National Day partners.

NATIONAL DAY PARTNERS

National Day partners are critical to the National Day to Prevent Teen Pregnancy's success. Each year, hundreds of national-level organizations team up with the National Campaign to promote the National Day to their members, affiliates, customers, audiences, and contacts in ways that the National Campaign could never accomplish on its own.

National-level partners include a diverse group of media outlets, health sector leaders, education leaders, businesses, youth-serving groups, groups representing elected officials, fatherhood and male involvement groups, faith-based

5 EASY WAYS TO PROMOTE THE NATIONAL DAY

1. Provide a link to the National Day Quiz or run a web banner on your website.
2. Alert others about the National Day through press releases, listservs, and newsletters.
3. Organize a National Day event to raise awareness and encourage teens to take the quiz.
4. Create and distribute Public Service Announcements for the National Day.
5. Get in touch with state and national policymakers to encourage them to promote the National Day, and/or issue a proclamation or resolution.

groups, and other prominent national organizations. For a complete list of our 2008 partners, please visit <http://www.thenationalcampaign.org/national>.

WHAT DO NATIONAL DAY PARTNERS DO?

Being an official partner of the National Day is easy. National organizations, media outlets, and websites simply grant the National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy permission to use their name and logo on National Day materials and agree to promote the National Day. As a National Day partner, you will agree to:

- promote the National Day throughout your organizational network including your members, chapters, clients, and colleagues;
- promote the National Day on your website and provide a link from your website to the National Day Quiz; and
- lend your name to promotional materials created by the National Campaign for the National Day.

That's it. The National Campaign, in turn, makes promoting the National Day easy by providing user-friendly materials to help spread the word. The National Day is organized to be non-controversial, non-partisan, and deeply respectful to the many sensitivities that the teen pregnancy issue engenders.
