Something to Talk About: Sparking a National Dialogue About Latina Teen Pregnancy

Wednesday, March 28, 2007
1:30 PM-2:30 PM
Room HC-8, Capitol Building

At present, 51% of Latina teens get pregnant at least once before the age of 20—that's almost twice the national average. This forum will address what it will take to help turn around these troubling rates and will highlight the latest research on Latina teen pregnancy, including new polling data of Latino teens and adults and state-by-state information. Speakers include:

- Sarah Brown, Director, The National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy;
- Isabel V. Sawhill, National Campaign Board President and Senior Fellow, The Brookings Institution;
- Daisy Expósito-Ulla, National Campaign Board Member and Chairman and CEO, d expósito & partners;
- Janet Murguia, President, National Council of La Raza;
- Representative Hilda Solis (D-CA);
- Representative Ciro D. Rodriguez (D-TX);
- Representative Raúl M. Grijalva (D-AZ);
- Mario H. Lopez, Executive Director, Congressional Hispanic Conference;
- and others to be confirmed.
