

This Is My Reality: The Price Of Sex

Ideas for Members of Congress on Using Information from this Report:

- Write an op-ed or column about key findings and implications for the community.
- Distribute summary to constituent groups such as schools, faith communities, and programs that work with urban youth.
- Write an article in your newsletter about the report's key findings.
- Host a town hall forum with teens, parents and community groups to highlight the progress in reducing teen pregnancy in the African American community and the remaining challenges discussed in this report.
- Encourage parents to address this issue, connect with their children, and serve as good role models.
- Meet with youth in your district to hear their reaction, ideas, and solutions to the documentary and report.

For More Information Contact:

Jennifer Widness
(202) 478-8524

Alicia Jackson
(215) 829-4920

